

Profile of the Trainer Lancer Miller

Lance Miller is a graduate of Michigan State University, and has marketing and management positions with the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee, Nestle, Anheuser Bush, and Katz Media Group. For 15 years he developed and managed sales and marketing programs for businesses in the fields of Law, Construction, International Finance, Alternative Health, and the Internet.

From 1990 to 1993 he served as the National Spokesperson for Citizens for an Alternative Tax System. From 1997 – 2003 he served as Vice-President of the International Foundation for Human Rights and Tolerance.

He joined The Way to Happiness Foundation International as President in January, 2004. The Foundation is an international organization that assists individuals and organizations around the world that want to positively effect their environment by instilling and fostering values of trust, honesty and responsibility. They work with programs in over 2,200 prisons, over 150 drug detoxification and education centers and have serviced nearly 12 million students in over 11,000 schools across America.

Lance joined Toastmasters in 1992. He is a DTM and a 3x District Champion in Speech Evaluation and Table Topics Speech Contests. He became the 2005 World Champion of Public Speaking in Toronto Canada in August of 2005.